IN

CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.222 OF 2004

Manmit Swarup Saggu & Rocky & Anr. : Applicants.

Versus

The State of Maharashtra : Respondent.

Mr.Ramrao Adik with Mr.Peter Lobo for the applicants.
Mr.D.P.Adsule, APP, for the State.

CORAM : D.G.DESHPANDE,J.

DATED : 15th December 2004.

P.C.

1. Heard advocate for applicants and the learned APP for the State. Bail application on merits was rejected by me earlier. Hence similar application is placed before me by order of Justice Kanade. Now the bail is sought on the ground that the father of the applicants Mr.Sarup Saggu, aged 65 years is suffering from advanced parkinson's disease and is disabled because of his condition and needs assistance and constant medical supervision. Learned APP states that he had verified the certificate filed at Exhibit F page 35.

2. Both the applicants are the sons of Mr.Swarup Saggu. Advocate for the applicants concedes that releasing one of them on a temporary bail would be sufficient in the circumstances. He suggests that applicant No.1 may be released Therefore, in this background, the applicant No.1 to be released on his P.R. bond of Rs.20,000/- [Rupees Twenty Thousand only] with one solvent surety in the like amount for a period of four months i.e. up to 15th April 2005. Applicant No.1 will surrender on the due date without fail. In the mean time the applicant No.1 will attend the concerned IO of DCB CID Unit IV once in a week. Application is disposed of.
